GUESS WHO?

BY
BRITTANY BURKETT & SARA LANGSTON

Hi. I'm Ashley. I was at a party one night and I heard footsteps in the attic. So I went upstairs and I saw a shadow. I followed it into the attic, and then the door shut and locked. I was alone in the dark and I saw something run through the wall. I followed it and found the door.

I ran out and started to scream. Hannah heard me and ran to the back yard and found me. She asked why I was screaming.

I said, "Look in the trees."

So she looked, and it was a hungry wolf. It jumped out of the tree and ran to us, so we ran fast out of the yard and to the neighbors.

We knocked on the door but nobody was there. So we went across the street and knocked on the door but nobody was there. So we went back to the house and we saw all the people dead on the floor.

So we ran to the police station and saw the policeman. He was sitting when we ran to him. We started to panic when we saw that he had no skin. Then the police started to chase us. We tried to kill it, but it didn't work. So we got out a knife and saved ourselves without being harmed.

(Warning: Do not read out loud.)

Two girls were camping in the middle of nowhere. Suddenly something moved in the woods. Something out there said, "Brittany, whoo." Something said, "Ahhh."

They screamed. They went running for their lives.

"I think it's gone."

Suddenly something grabbed Brittany when she wasn't looking. Sara turned around and she was not there anymore.

Sara said, "Ohh."

Suddenly she saw Brittany standing by a grave. Sara ran toward Brittany but then she heard a sound. They ran to a nearby boat. They got in the boat.

They got away just in time, but the fog came. They couldn't see anything. Suddenly they heard footsteps. It was the ghost with blood all over him. Sara kicked him. Brittany punched him. Sara and Brittany threw him overboard.

They quickly went back to the shore, to the grave, then went to the tent and got all their stuff. They ran through the woods across the creek, through the field and down the street, and home and told everyone about the ghost. No one believed them.

Or did they, until someone went down there and died? So they put a warning sign up, but they still go past it. They say that 26 people died.

Once there was a girl named Ashley. She was threatened to be killed if she didn't marry the prince. After the wedding night, she hanged herself. When the prince saw that his wife was dead, he thought one of his guards did it, so he hanged the guard and he called his three daughters named Hannah, Caitlyn, and Avery. So they came to their dad's house and by the time they got there, their dad was stabbed in the head. Then they looked up and saw where the people got hanged. Then they saw two ghosts that looked exactly like the people who got hanged. And the ghosts were holding a knife, about to throw it.

They ran out of the door and into the yard, but the ghosts kept following him. So they got in their car and drove away. The ghost followed them home. So they moved to a different home. Nobody believed them until a teenager went there and now he's haunted until he dies.

SKELETON

Once there was a girl named Jessica, and she was having a sleepover with her friends. She heard footsteps coming up the stairs. Then they got louder and louder. Then she saw the door open and heard clanging sounds. She saw a skeleton.

Jessica and her friend ran out of the room and down the stairs and into the back yard. Jessica realized that her friend was being pulled back into the house by the skeleton, so she ran into the neighbor's house. But when she ran in, the neighbor was dead. She got very scared. She ran back to get her friend, and when she got there, she saw blood dripping down the stairs. So she ran down the street to the police station. When she ran in, she saw her brother on a table, cut into pieces. She ran back into the house and ran upstairs, and never came back.

Some people say that the skeleton killed her. Some say her friend got mad and came back from the dead because she left her. But it is still a mystery.

THE HAUNTED RODEO

BY

There was a girl named Hannah and a boy named Blake. They were going to a rodeo. When they got there, they asked the manager what was the story that happened there. The manager said that some people died there. They asked him how and he said that the Bull that he was hiding that night got loose when he was not ready. Then the bull jumped over the rail and killed all the people in the stands. The manager said that the rodeo was haunted by all the people who died. The kids did not believe him so they stayed overnight.

They were told that the ghosts come out at 7:00 at night – the same time the rodeo started. That night at 7:00, they walked in the rodeo. They saw the ghost bull with a ghost rider. They looked around and saw that the people were coming in.

Then the kids yelled, "Are you ghosts?"

Then they heard the ghosts say, "Yes."

The ghosts looked at them and smiled. Then one ghost yelled, "Get them!"

The ghosts got up and started to get them; so the kids ran and the ghosts ran after them. They tried running out the door, but the door was locked, so they jumped into the pen where the bull was.

They tried to get out, but the rail was too high.

Then Blake said, "Let's make a bet. If I ride the bull without falling off, then I can get out, OK? And if I don't, you can do what you want."

The ghosts agreed.

But the boy did not stay on the bull. The next morning, the manager walked in and saw the kids hanging by the roof with a rope around their necks and blood dripping down their backs.

The next week, a kid came and asked, "Did two kids die here?"

"Yes," said the manager.

When the kid looked behind the manager, he saw the heads of the ghosts.

NIGHTMARE

BY
BRITTANY BURKETT & SARA LANGSTON

Ashley and Hannah were having a sleepover. They wanted Avery to come so they called Avery. Avery never came. Suddenly the lights turned off. They heard a knock on the door. The door opened. It was a man standing there with blood dripping from his face.

The girls screamed as he walked in the door. He was holding a knife in his hand. The girls ran out of the room and the man went to get them. They hid in the attic. The man looked in the attic. He did not see them, but then he saw heads. It was the girl's. He ran after them. Then the girls ran down the stairs and into the kitchen. They felt something on their feet. It was blood. When they looked in front of them, there was a body. It was Avery's body. The man came in the kitchen and got one of the girls. She kicked him then ran. The man ran to get them. They hid behind the couch. The man could not find them. The girls tried to reach the phone, but the man saw a hand.

The man grabbed her arm and pulled her out of the couch. Hannah tried to pull her back, but the man was too strong.
He got his knife and tried to cut her arm off but Hannah pulled her back. The girls got his knife and stabbed him 5 times. He died bleeding to death. At this point, the girls died too.

DO YOU KNOW?

BY
BRITTANY BURKETT & SARA LANGSTON

Hi. I'm Becca and this is my friend Hannah. You've probably heard of us. We were camping one night and we heard a loud bark.

"What was that?"

I looked out of the tent. I saw a shadow shaped like a big wolf. It was howling at the moon. Then it saw me and I quickly put my head back in the tent. I don't know what it looked like, but it kept getting closer and closer. Me and Hannah got very scared; but we were very quiet so it went back to its home. So we ran out of our tent and ran back into a log cabin. We thought it was safe, but we were wrong.

It was haunted by a ghost! We saw the ghost and the ghost saw us too. We tried to run, but the ghost locked the door. The boy that we saw yesterday was lying on the table. He was bleeding to death.

"Ahhh!"

We busted the door open. The ghost has followed us to our house. Every now and then we see the ghost in our yard pointing at us and yelling.

So we forgot that the ghost was outside. We walked outside and saw the ghost and ran inside and did not shut the door and the ghost came inside. We ran out and locked the door. Now our house is haunted.

WHO DID THAT?

BY
BRITTANY BURKETT & SARA LANGSTON

Hi. I'm Chloe and my friend's name is Hannah. We were having a play day and something scratched me on the back. Nobody was there – only me and Hannah. I turned around and saw a ghost. We ran into a brick house and headed to the closet.

Instead of a ghost coming in, it was a wolf. It smelled us and got closer and closer. Then it saw our feet move and started to howl. And more wolves came, so we picked our feet up and were very quiet, and they went home.

So we opened the door and we were in a church full of ghosts. They were staring at us. We ran out the door and went in our tree house; but we saw a black panther climbing up the tree. We went back and ran in the forest and found a safer place. We saw a wild bear. Then blood was coming from the sky.

Every drop of blood turned into a vampire.

The only thing we could do was to throw rocks at their chests. That killed them.

We ran down the road and the ghost followed us home and our house is now haunted by the ghost.

WHO IS IT?

BY
BRITTANY BURKETT & SARA LANGSTON

Hi. I'm Chloe and this is my friend Hannah. We were having a sleep-over one night and heard a loud scream.

Then I said, "What was that?"

Then Hannah said, "I was talking to a boy and he said that the place in front of this house is haunted."

I said, "NO it isn't."

She said, "I'll prove it."

And I said, "Prove it!"

So we went to the house. We knocked on the door.

"Who is it?"

"WHHHHHH," I said. "I thought you said nobody lived here!"

"They don't," Hannah said.

"Then who said that?"

"It must be the ghost that the boy was talking about."

"OK, sorry to bother you. Let's Go!"

"OK. That boy was right!"

"I know!"

Then a voiced yelled, "Come back here!" So we turned around and went back to him. We don't know what happened, but we ended up right in front of the ghost. We saw a lot of bones. Something was on the table. It was the boy – the boy that Hannah was talking to! He's dead!

I said, "I hope we're not next."

"So do I".

So we tried to get out but the door was locked. So we busted the door open. We ran home very fast. We made the ghost mad. He followed us home.
